THE FEAST OF THE ASCENSION

The last gesture of our Lord on earth was to give a blessing.

On seeing the risen Christ, the disciples fell down before Him as their Master and their God and worshipped Him. Now they are much more conscious of what they had for some time believed in their hearts and confessed with their lips: that their Master was the Messiah.

With the Ascension, Christ's earthly mission comes to a close, and ours, as His disciples, begins.

Jesus wishes each one of us to remain in his place, sanctifying the world from within, improving it and placing it at the feet of God. Only thus will the world be a place where human dignity is valued and respected, a place where men live in peace, in true peace, the peace which is so closely linked to God.

Today's feast reminds us that our concern for souls is a response to a command of love given to us by our Lord. As He goes up to Heaven, Jesus sends us out as His witnesses throughout the whole world.

Our responsibility is great, because to be Christ's witness implies first of all that we should try to behave according to His doctrine, that we should struggle to make our actions remind others of Jesus and His most lovable personality. Jesus departs, but He remains close to each of us. In a special way we find Him in the Tabernacle. Let us tell Him that He can count on us to make known His teaching everywhere we go.

The Apostles returned to Jerusalem in the company of Mary. With her they awaited the coming of the Holy Spirit.
